

Weekly Review

8th March 2019

Acorn

We have enjoyed introducing our Storytime Phonics programme this week. The phonic fairy and Tricky Troll have kept us very busy!

Many thanks to the parents that attended to meeting on Tuesday. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask.

Bourn book day

We had so much fun dressing up as our favourite story characters this week. I was very impressed with all of the costumes so thank you so much for all your support.

During the day we talked a lot about favourite characters and story books. Some children had brought in their story books at home and, as it would have been impossible to read them all out loud, they had fun sharing them with friends during independent play.

We were lucky to have a wonderful visitor during the afternoon. Jo (and William!) helped the children to learn the song 'Green Eggs and Ham' from the Dr Seuss series. Jo is part of the Bourn players group and will be performing Seussical the musical at Comberton Village College hall on the 4-6th April. Tickets are on sale at Bourn village shop and online at www.bournplayers.org.uk so please spare a moment to check it out.

Next week sound/book focus:

ee, qu, igh and oa.

Home learning:

Home learning sheets: sound focus 'sh' 'ch' sheets in plastic wallets.
