

Weekly Review – Acorn Class

Friday 29th November 2019

This week we have all had an opportunity to bake something in school. Children have mostly baked biscuits and really loved the whole experience, including the washing up!

The play is looking really impressive so far. If you don't think that your child can attend the evening performance please let us know. Thank you to all those parents that have helped supply costume items already we are needing 2 sheep costumes and if anyone has any star costumes we would be most grateful.

DONATIONS NEEDED!

For Christmas Capers, there will be a raffle of Luxury hampers. Please send in gift items for Acorn Class' contribution – we will be very grateful! There will also be a teddy tombola as well as the main tombola. All donations are very welcome. There are boxes in the foyer

Last week we had a visit from Henry's dad explaining what it was like to be a police officer. The children had to solve the problem of Mr Parkin's missing bag!

Had it been stolen? Ask your children what happened and how the mystery was solved.
