

Pyjamarama Day

Today was Pyjamarama Day which aims to promote the enjoyment of reading whilst also raising money for Booktrust - a charity which provides families with bed time stories. The children dressed in pyjamas and enjoyed a breakfast of croissants and orange juice, whilst their teachers read to them.

The children really enjoyed the opportunity to hear a new story. Thanks to Miss Hensleigh for organizing this.

Road Safety Outside the School

I have seen some very alarming incidents outside the school this week: children getting out of cars into the middle of the road, crossing in front of the bus, crossing behind a parked car (that reversed without checking behind it), crossing on the blind bend, running across the road, crossing without looking, cars parking on zig zag lines, in the bus bays, on double yellow lines and across drives. Please can you do all you can to help all our children stay safe on the roads.

Art in Year 1 Willow Class have been learning how to use clay. They started with making worms, then ladybirds and have now produced amazing hedgehogs! Aren't they gorgeous?
